Republican Nominee for Mayor Explains Attitude Toward Water Plant Purchase.

Attorney General Hits Rising
Cost of Government at Countywide Rally.

Taking a definite stand on the proposed purchase of the Marion water plant by the city and other important municipal questions, Dr. Frederick C. Smith, Republican nominee, sharing the speakers platform with Attorney General John W. Bricker at a countywide party rally last night at the Elks hall, made his first public statement regarding what he would do if elected mayor.

On the waterworks question, Dr. Smith said the city's present rate contract with the water company expires next year. If we can get lower rates before the plant than by letting the company keep it, let's buy it. If we can get lower rates by letting the company keep it than we can by buying it, let the company keep it.

"In any event, I shall not sign my name if I am mayor, to anything that the city to buy the plant until the people of Marion have had a chance to vote on it. I will do my best to see that Marion gets a lower water rate. If possible, and you can be certain the public will know what's going on while I'm trying."

Bricker Hits Tax Boost
Dr. Smith made these and other statements in an address that followed a talk by Attorney General Bricker, probable candidate for governor next year, in the city. He reiterated the protest against raising taxes in state and federal government he voiced at a seventh district Republican rally Tuesday at Richwood. Another part of the program was the first public appearance of the Young Republican Club, led by B. C. Hill. A crowd estimated at 400 persons filled the Elks lodge room to hear the rally program.

A "balanced budget" for the city was promised by Dr. Smith, who declared in an explanation of his position that he would make sure that the city's budget was balanced. He said that he would make sure that the city's budget was balanced. He said that he would make sure that the city's budget was balanced.

Hospital Problem
Dr. Smith offered as another plank in his platform a pledge to make an effort to "reestablish the hospital."

YOUTH IN HOSPITAL AFTER AUTO MISHAP

Injured About Head After Series of Unusual Accidents.

Robert Wolbert, 15, of Green Camp, is in the city hospital nursing head injuries as the result of a series of unusual mishaps last night near Agosta.

Wolbert was one of six passengers in an automobile driven by Gene Lyons of Green Camp when the car skidded off the roadway near Agosta last night.

One of the girls passengers in the car, apparently frightened by the accident, was reported to have leaped out and ran up the roadway, screaming. Deputy Sheriff W. H. Wells, who made inquiry into the accident, said.

While running to overtake her and learn if she was injured, Wolbert was struck accidentally by an automobile driven by Earl Crook of Agosta, the deputy said.

Crook, he added, is the brother of the girl Wolbert was running after. Wolbert is the son of Mrs. Esther Wolbert of Green Camp.

CRAWFORD CO. FERA TO HALT

Local Office To Dismiss All
Workers Oct. 7: Mayors
Seek Relief Means.

WPA TO TAKE 85 PER CENT
Question of When Money Will Be Available Still Pending, However.

Special to The Star
BUCYRUS, Sept. 28.—Definite information that all federal relief will cease in Crawford county Oct. 7 at which time the local FERA office will dismiss all case workers and commence liquidation of the office, was given by Robert J. Crawford, county FERA director, Friday night at a county wide meeting called by Mayor George M. Birk of Bucyrus as the first step toward providing for relief clients as they are received back into the county.

That the works progress administration will absorb approximately 85 per cent of the relief load when it gets under way was, however, pointed out by Mr. Jentgen. No assurance as to when money will be available to start the WPA program could be advanced by Mr. Jentgen or by G. T. Pittenger, state WPA official, who outlined the situation.

Action Delayed
Adoption of any actual measures looking toward locally controlled relief was delayed by the group when, after several hours discussion, a motion was made by Mayor George Kuzell of Crestline that a committee be appointed to cooperate with the county commissioners in working out a plan. The committee, appointed by Mayor George Birk, which includes mayors of all Crawford county cities and villages and township trustees, representatives, met Monday morning, Sept. 30, to meet at the office of the county commissioners.

In outlining conditions in Crawford county from the standpoint of the office of Director Jentgen, Mr. Jentgen stated that the county now has listed 811 employables, of which number approximately 500 will be given employment when the WPA program gets into action. Mr. Jentgen pointed out that county commissioners have the authority to sell bonds under the Carey act up to the amount of $38,000 without a vote of the people. Allocation of the proceeds of the sale of such bonds would supply relief funds for approximately three months, he estimated.

Opposes Bond Issue
His absolute disfavor to issuing bonds for relief and advocating a pay-as-you-go system of administering relief was stated by Rep. Kenneth Petri of Gallion.

Why Crawford county has encountered so much delay in getting the money allocated for WPA projects was asked of Pittenger who stated that although the local projects have received approval of the President, all projects must go through the office of the comptroller general. The immense bulk of material now going through the process of approval was explained by Pittenger as the cause of the delay.

Approximately 50 representatives from the entire county attended the meeting which was presided over by William Amann, county commissioner.

MOVE TO PLACE RELIEF BOND ON BALLOTS FAILS

Bittering Announces Recess
Until Oct. 8 on Hearing
Vote Law Bars Action.

DAVEY PLANS COLLAPSE
Assembly Goes Home Leaving
Four of His Five Proposals in Discard.

By The Associated Press
COLUMBUS, O., Sept. 28.—All hope for getting a relief bond issue proposal on the November election ballots collapsed today when Speaker J. Frier Bittering announced the house would not be called back into session until Oct. 5. Bittering's announcement came after Rep. P. E. Ward, chairman of the house taxation committee, reported there would not be sufficient time to comply with election law requirements even in the legislature approved submission of a bond issue proposal.

Saw Bricker and Myers
Ward had conferred with the attorney general and secretary of state.

The latest of a series of relief proposals presented to the legislature would have authorized county commissioners to issue approximately $15,000,000 worth of bonds under the Carey act without a vote of the people.

Gov. Davey's program for the special legislative session appeared to have almost collapsed.

Members of the Ohio general assembly returned to their homes, following their second week's sessions, leaving behind in apparent discard four of five prime issues recommended to them for approval.

As a result of the house action in definitely recessing until Oct. 5, the senate, after a skeleton session today, went into an indefinite "five-minute" recess to meet at the call of the chair.

Senate President Protom Paul P. Yoder said the five-minute recess was "until the house sends us something to work on or the senate itself has something to do."

Signs Five Measures
During the perfunctory senate session, Yoder signed and sent to the house five emergency measures which had completed passage. Among them was the bill reenacting the old Whittemore law which expired Sept. 1, providing for installment payment of delinquent taxes. The new measure will be valid until Dec. 31, 1938. At the executive office it was stated that Gov. Davey probably will sign the bill Monday, making it effective immediately.

Other bills sent to the governor authorize the issuance of bonds on behalf of library districts to participate in federal funds; authorize counties to vote special levies for statutory welfare purposes by a majority; authorize cities to vote additional levies by a majority for municipal universities; and validate certain bond issues which had been voted for federal works projects.

Gov. Davey desired submission of an $8,000,000 bond issue to finance a $20,000,000 building program and a $40,000,000 issue to

METHODISTS ACCEPT BID FROM TOLEDO

Will Meet There in 1936;
Marion and Dayton Submit Invitations.

Marion's invitation to the Ohio conference of the Methodist Episcopal church to convene here in 1936, and an invitation from Dayton, were rejected in favor of Toledo, according to an Associated Press report from Columbus where the conference is now in session.

At yesterday's session Dr. George S. Barbee of Kenton, superintendent of the Lima district of which Marion is a member, made a composite report for the superintendent which showed that every interest of the church, including finances, is on the upward trend. No church has been closed because of the depression.

The conference prepared today to wind up the bulk of its business affairs. It was to take final action on a proposal to increase from two to four the number of Ohio districts.

Both the lay and ministerial groups were to complete the election of delegates to the general conference meeting in Columbus next May.

Methodist Episcopal ministers will occupy many of the Columbus pulpits Sunday.

Conference will close with the reading of appointments Monday.

MINISTERS HERE RECEIVE LETTER FROM ROOSEVELT

Sincere Appeal for Aid, Majority Think; Prepare To Send Answers.

"I feel it is either a conscientious effort on the part of a man who wants help, or it is a political move, or it may be both," was the comment of one Marion minister this morning on a letter received this week by a majority of pastors of churches here from President Roosevelt asking their cooperation in presenting to him local problems which the recently enacted social securities legislation will affect.

The letter was sent to clergymen throughout the country. A majority of the ministers questioned this morning regarding their reaction to the letter, which has raised widespread comment in ministerial circles throughout the country, felt that it was a sincere appeal to them for aid, and said they would reply with the same sincerity.

"The aims included in the social security legislation are in accord with the goals and aims of the social commission of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian church," Rev. Howard L. Oetwiler of the First Presbyterian church said in commenting on the letter.

The commission has worked toward old age pensions, aid for crippled children and unemployment insurance, the three main sections of the social security legislation, he said, adding, "I think he is sincere."

Rev. J. A. Carraker of the Forest Lawn Presbyterian church, president of the Marion County Ministerial Association, said he would have his reply framed by the first of the week. He said he favors the President's legislation establishing the public works administration to replace direct relief. "I will take him at his word and give him my honest opinion as far as possible," he said.

"I don't believe it is political," Rev. John W. Heistand of the First Reformed church said. "I believe he is in earnest and I think he really wants the public's opinion and is contacting the ministers because they come in contact with so many people."

In the letter President Roosevelt asked that the ministers write him, giving a picture of conditions

CITY'S CALL FOR COAL BIDS GETS NO ANSWER

Dealer Says Uncertainty of When Payment Will Be Made Causes Lack of Offers.

Three advertisements for bids from Marion coal dealers to furnish coal to the city for the following winter, went unheeded as the deadline for receiving proposals arrived yesterday.

The request for bids was to be received today, on Oct. 5 and again on Oct. 12. Bids must be in by Oct. 12.

A Marion coal dealer, who said he valued the co-operation of members of the Marion Coal Dealers' association, asserted that the city has no funds in sight to pay for the coal.

He said that city officials would make no promise when payment would be made.

"We have not yet received our money for coal sold the city for 1934-1935, and we don't know when we will receive it," he said.

W. A. Miller, secretary of the Marion Coal Dealers' association, said that the city has no funds in sight to pay for the coal.

PEACE GESTURE MADE BY ITALY

Tells Geneva She'll Not Quit
Seat Unless Assembly Asks Collective Sanctions.

PROMISE BRITISH NO HARM

Reiterate Need for Expansion and Claim Treaties Give Her Ethiopian Priority.

By The Associated Press
Italy's cabinet today declared that nation will not break with the League of Nations until the league itself assumes full responsibility for measures against Italy, and make a sudden gesture of peace toward Great Britain.

"Italy's policy has no immediate or remote aim which could injure Great Britain's interests," the ministers, meeting with Premier Mussolini, announced.

Under the guiding hand of Benito Mussolini, the ministers in a momentous session also determined that the Fascist government "declares in the most solemn manner it will avoid everything that could extend the Italo-Ethiopian conflict to a wider field."

Point to Necessities
However, the cabinet declared in a communique that the proposals advanced by the League of Nations committee of five for a peaceful settlement of the Italo-Ethiopian row "took no account of Italy's necessities for expansion and security, and ignored completely all treaties which at different times from 1850 to 1900 and 1920, recognize the priority of Italian interests in Ethiopia."

The communique, declaring Ethiopia has completed mobilization of all its forces, "with the intention to be declared by His Majesty Haile Selassie of attacking Italy's colonial frontiers," accused the League of Nations of "locking itself up in formal labyrinthine of procedure."

Before the cabinet met, authoritative sources said Italy has been "received" again by the League of Nations and once again has withdrawn into its shell—ready to fight and all comers.

League Assembly Recovers
Despite the warning that "grave events" were impending the League of Nations assembly adjourned today, but ready to meet instantly in the event of an 800 call in any new Italo-Ethiopian emergency.

The league council, sitting as a committee of 13 decided in a private session to submit to the assembly a request by Ethiopia for the dispatch of neutral observers to the Ethiopian frontiers.

Emperor Haile Selassie had requested these observers fearing Italy might take advantage of a

Tells Farmers They're Given
First Real Chance in This Generation.

SAYS IT'S CONSTITUTIONAL
Declares It Supplies Unifying Factor Essential to Success of U. S. Agriculture.

By The Associated Press
FARMINGTON, N.H., Sept. 28.—President Roosevelt told a farm audience today the agricultural adjustment act is giving farmers "really a chance for the first time in this generation."

He declared the effort to aid the agriculturists was "the true function of government under our Constitution."

Speaking in the heart of the grain belt while midway to the coast on his western tour, Mr. Roosevelt called the AAA economically and constitutionally, "democracy in the good old sense of the word."

"The government's part in this program is merely to supply the unifying element that the farmers themselves, in their past efforts, found so essential to success," he declared.

"That, it seems to me, is the true function of government under our Constitution—to promote the general welfare, not by interfering unduly with individual liberties, but by bringing to the aid of the individual those powers of government which are essential to assure the continuance of the inalienable rights which the Constitution is intended to guarantee."

Mr. Roosevelt asserted the income of the farmers has been increased by $3,300,000 over the 1932 level. He said many factors were involved in the readjustment.

"Our monetary policy was one," he said. "The drought was another. Increased demand for products caused by the economic revival was another and the operations of our agricultural adjustment administration was still another."

All other benefits. After reciting asserted improvements in the condition of agriculture, the President pointed to "the longer future," prevention of soil erosion and floods, encouragement of forestation and removal of unprofitable submarginal lands from production.

"I like to think," he said, "that

ISLAND DAMAGE UP IN MILLIONS

300 Injured in Path of Storm;
British Steamer Aground
in Cuban Water.

WHOLE TOWN DESTROYED

Both Coasts of American Peninsula Warned To Prepare for Bad Gale.

By The Associated Press
Thirty-two persons dead, 300 injured, 1,000 homes destroyed and damage amounting into the millions were revealed today in the first reports to come out of the stricken area battered by the tropical hurricane that swept Jamaica, lashed central Cuba and advanced on toward the southeast coast of Florida.

One ship, the British steamer Wanderer, sent out a wireless she was aground on Point Fort Bluff, off the south coast of Cuba.

Thirty dead and 300 injured at Cienfuegos, Cuba, was reported to naval headquarters at Havana by the cruiser Viento De Mayo, now in the Cienfuegos harbor.

1,000 Homes Destroyed
The vessel's report added that 1,000 houses had been destroyed there and that the town of Castilla was destroyed by high seas.

Two dead and crop damage estimated at $2,000,000 were reported in Jamaica in dispatches received from Kingston. Three million stems of bananas were damaged there, by high winds and torrential rains.

The reports were the first to come out of the areas following movements of the storm northward to a point where it reported late today to strike the lower Florida coast in the vicinity of Miami.

Residents all along the lower Florida coast from West Palm Beach southward to Key West were warned to prepare for probable hurricane winds and to take the utmost precautions.

At 8 a. m. today, the Helen observatory at Havana announced the hurricane was "leaving the northern coast of Cuba near Key West, traveling north-northeastward and will be dangerous this afternoon or tomorrow morning in the eastern part of Florida and the Florida coast."

At 10:30 a. m. eastern standard time, the Jacksonville weather bureau, ordered northeast storm warnings extended north of Everglades City on the west coast to Tarpion Springs and north of Daytona Beach to Charleston, N. C.

At that hour, the bureau said, a tropical disturbance attended by hurricane winds was central about 150 miles to 170 miles south of Miami, moving northward.

Hurricane warnings are displayed from Key West to West Palm Beach.

It was September's second storm threat for Florida.

Not quite four weeks ago, on Labor day, winds pounded tons of water over the Florida keys, laying them waste and killing more than 400 persons.

Today, Florida and Red Cross relief workers, who were in the storm-swept areas cleaning up after the disaster, were evacuated to places of greater safety.

Stricken Areas Isolated
As it screamed across Cuba, the tropical storm from the Caribbean emptied the island's coastal cities in its path and cut off news from many stricken sections.

Swept by driving rain, Havana was isolated from the rest of Cuba beyond a line just east of Cienfuegos, Matanzas province, and northwest of Cienfuegos, Santa Clara province.

The city of Havana was filled with hundreds of frightened refugees who poured in on special trains. Apparently the storm was very violent, officials of the national observatory said.

"Entering Cuba last night, the storm marked by high winds and heavy rains, struck in Camaguey province. With communications cut there was no report from that area."

Special trains carried more than 1,500 refugees from Santa Clara del Sur into Havana during the night. These people, men, women and children, had fled before the pounding seas could reach the arrival of destructive winds.

Reports from Cuba said the towns of Juana, Cienfuegos, and Sancti Spiritus had been evacuated last night.

SCOUTERS HOLD MEETING HERE

Annual Harding Pilgrimage Planned; Camp Report Is Heard.

Plans for a group of Scouters from the Harding Area Council to attend the Silver Jubilee meeting of Region IV at Louisville, Ky., Oct. 5 were made at a meeting of the Area Executive board Thursday night at the Chamber of Commerce. Wilbur H. Byrnes, president, was in charge of the meeting.

Scouters from Ohio, West Virginia, and Kentucky will attend this annual gathering and Dr. James E. West, Chief Scout Executive of the United States, will be present.

A committee was appointed to make preparations for the annual Harding Pilgrimage on Nov. 2, consisting of J. W. Llewellyn, chairman, and R. T. Lewis, Alfred Donithen, C. A. Hudson, Floyd Browne, Judge C. U. Ahl of Bucyrus, and Nelson Campbell of Mt. Pleasant. As Harding's birthday falls on Saturday this year a special effort is being made to get all patriotic and civic organizations to attend, as well as people from surrounding counties, to pay tribute to the memory of Marion's most outstanding citizen.

A total of 410 Boy Scouts camped this summer at Camp John A. Owens, it was reported by Clifford M. Hower, chairman of the camping committee, representing one of the highest percentages of the scout membership at camp in Region IV. Additional buildings, tents and equipment is essential, he said, if the scouts camping there are to be accommodated and a new troop unit must be developed there before next summer. The big assembly lodge is nearing completion with volunteer labor, it was reported.

C. G. Knoblock of Carey, vice president of the council and chairman of the merit badge exposition to be held Feb. 7 and 8, reported on the development of plans. E. G. Browne, C. H. Faust, James Hefbringer, Dr. F. H. Mann, Fred Allen, Judge H. S. Young, Frank M. Knapp and Cloyce W. Taylor from Marion and Victor Vollrath of Bucyrus, O. E. Smith of Mt. Pleasant and L. V. A. Vester of Carey were appointed as the committee in charge.

F. G. Browne, scout commissioner, gave a summary of membership for the area reporting a total of 22 troops with the Morrow county district showing the highest enrollment of scouts in proportion to population.

The next meeting of the board will be held at Mt. Pleasant, Oct. 23 and the tenth annual meeting of the Council was set for Jan. 16 in Marion.

Report $25,000 in Applications for FHA Loans

Housing Week Closes Tonight With Last Clinic on Operation of Act.

State and district federal housing officials, conducting a housing clinic yesterday and today in the Chamber of Commerce rooms, reported last night they had received applications for work for seven loans totaling approximately $25,000 and predicted this figure would be increased substantially during today's clinic.

The six representatives of the FHA taking part in the clinic said 25 persons visited the chamber officers yesterday to ask questions pertaining to the program. Representing the FHA are M. E. Corcoran, executive assistant, Melvin Frank, architect, Joseph M. Stewart, chief valuator, John Nelson, preliminary examiner, Preston B. Daley, field representative and Dean B. Bell, field representative.

All of the seven new applications, Mr. Corcoran said, are made under Title II of the federal housing act under which the federal government insures loans for the construction of new housing. The loans are made to individuals or corporations, and the government insures the loans against default.

Among the questions presented at the clinic yesterday and their answers, as given by the FHA officials, are the following:

Q—How long will it take to get a loan through? A—All are closed in the Columbus office, and it takes about 10 days for loans for purchasing, refinancing or improvement. Loans for improvement or modernization can be completed in 24 hours.

Q—What will the interest charges be? A—Less than six per cent, including five per cent interest on half of one per cent for the service charge of the lending institution and one half of one per cent for government insurance, part of which will be refunded at the expiration of the term of the loan. Only the actual cost of losses under the insurance plan will be retained and the balance will be returned.

Q—What do the monthly payments include? A—Principal and interest, taxes and assessments and hazard insurance, including fire and tornado. These payments are made at the lending institution and are the only payments the borrower has to make.

Q—How can I qualify for a loan? A—You must have 20 per cent of the loan either in the form of the value of your lot or in cash, and must show a sufficient income to meet everyday expenses and payments on the loan.

Q—How much may I borrow? A—As much as you can conveniently pay for.

Q—How long a time may I have to pay for? A—As long as 20 years for mortgages. For repair and modernization loans, five years is the maximum.

Q—How much will monthly payments amount to on mortgages for purchasing property, refinancing existing mortgages or loans for new construction? A—This varies, but in average cases the monthly payments are less than rent, over a period of 20 years. An average monthly payment is $8.93 for each $1,000 borrowed.

RELIEF VOTE PLANS FAIL IN ASSEMBLY

Neither proposal got out of committee. The senate went so far as to work out its own relief plan, but the house refused to consider it on the ground it did not come within the scope of the executive call.

The relief proposal was designed to aid counties handicapped by bond issuing restrictions.

Both houses revised the building plan to make $3,400,000 available through a $3,000,000 appropriation from the state's general fund and a $2,400,000 federal grant.

Gov. Davey threatened Friday to veto this plan. He objected principally to Republican-backed house committee amendments specifically allocating funds and placing control in the hands of a seven-member commission.

"I think it is a very serious mistake," he said, "to create a commission of this sort and then tie up the money with a certain set of projects. I would rather see the bill defeated outright."

Relief Authority Rejected

Another of the governors' plans which met a cold shoulder would have set up a relief authority to administer state funds for relief purposes for the remainder of this year. When this appeared doomed, he substituted the $3,000,000 bond issue plan for it.

House Republicans, comprising a majority, decisively defeated, with the aid of Democrats, the administration's $38,000,000 budget juggling bill to relieve a financial dilemma.

The only bright spot of the quick action by both houses on the opening day to allocate state liquor profits to finance old age pension needs for the remainder of 1935.

DR. F. C. SMITH TAKES STAND ON PROBLEMS

credit of the Marion City hospital, which he said is "virtually gone." Emphasizing that he was not critical of the service given by the institution, but was speaking only of its financial credit standing, he said the hospital now is in danger of being refused supplies on credit, that it needs for normal operating purposes. "This hospital problem is going to be a difficult one to solve, and I'm going to ask the full cooperation of all citizens of Marion in an effort to put it in better condition financially and raise its standards in every other way," he said.

Before making these comments on his program, Dr. Smith devoted most of his speaking time to "bad money" and "political corruption," which he described as the two basic factors responsible for the depression.

The seed of "bad money," he said, was sown 75 years ago when the legal tender act made it legal to permit the printing of greenbacks. From that point he traced the trend toward more paper money and government withdrawal of gold and silver from circulation and declared that "when workers are paid in gold and silver coins, you'll know the depression is over—but not before."

The three principal factors responsible for political corruption, he said, are the spirit of political party rivalry, the spoils system and political aggression on industry. Commenting that political corruption has reached the place where citizens generally are distrustful of politicians and public officials, he said:

"If I'm elected mayor, the lid is coming off the city hall so that all may see and know what is going on inside—it's your business. In my opinion nothing has done more to create distrust in the citizenry in the conduct of governmental affairs."

Challenge to America

Attorney General Bricker, declaring that the federal government presents a challenge to Americans today, said governmental costs are rising both in the state and nation and that it is a challenge to the Republican party to check rising taxes and "make the government a blessing to its people instead of a burden to its subjects."

Of state government, he asserted that 20 new bureaus and commissions have been created since the year 1900. He said the budget under the present administration is $5,500,000 higher than in Governor White's, and that a $30,000,000 increase in the state budget had accompanied a 10 per cent growth in population.

Of the federal government, he asserted that Washington is spending $13,000,000 every minute and is adding $7,000 to the national debt every minute. The federal government, he said, has appropriated $24,000,000 for rehabilitation of artists and musicians. "Can you regard that as a proper governmental function and do you think it is possible to buy art with government funds?" he asked. "It is like trying to enforce the sermon on the Mount by an act of congress."

The Republican party, he said, always fostered freedom of opportunity for creation of wealth. Declaring there can be no overproduction so long as people are hungry, need clothing and want automobiles, he predicted success for the Republican party both in the state and nation next year on a program of freeing industry and business from governmental restrictions.

Of taxes generally, he declared there are 53 separate taxes on every loaf of bread and declared, "If you worked four days last year you spent one of them working for your government." If you drive a motorized taxicab, he said, you pay $59 in taxes in a year's time, he said.

This administration in Washington, he asserted, has spent as much as the combined expenditures of the federal government from Washington's time down to Wilson.

Introduced by Mouser

The attorney general was introduced by Grant E. Mouser, former assistant attorney general and former eighth district congressman. Dr. Smith was presented by T. A. O'Leary, president of the Marion County Republican club, who also introduced all Republican candidates for city offices. C. E. Wharton of Kenton, represented the Federated Farm clubs and the Hardin county Democratic league who displayed a banner endorsing Bricker for governor.

Attorney General Bricker introduced Frederick J. Milligan of Union, Ohio, as his assistant in the attorney general's office and former assistant dean of men at Ohio State university for three years following his graduation from law school there in 1928. Larry Green, a clerk in the attorney general's office and John Mitchell, a son of one of the assistants in the attorney general's office.

The Young Republican Glee club, said by Mr. Milligan to be the only organization of its kind among young Republicans in the state, sang several numbers and Mrs. Mary Elsie Furness sang two solos.

Miss Gertrude Jones of Findlay, former Republican nominee for congress from the eighth district, sent a telegram to the meeting stating regret over her inability to attend.

The Eagles band played at the courthouse and led a motor parade to the Eagles temple prior to the meeting. Sixty persons attended a dinner for Mr. Bricker at Hotel Marion at 6:30 following the reception for him at the hotel at 4.

RALLY WILL BOOST NEXT HARDING GAME

Citywide Event To Be Sponsored Next Thursday by Jr. C. of C.

A tentative program for a citywide rally to be held Thursday night to stimulate interest in Harding High school football games was announced today by Sherman Haldeman, representing the Junior Chamber of Commerce which is sponsoring the rally in cooperation with high school officials.

The rally is scheduled to be started at 7:30 o'clock at the Central Junior High school grounds. A parade, headed by the Harding High school band, will move east on Center street, Vine street and down Vine street to the athletic field where a pep meeting will be held around a huge bonfire. High school cheerleaders will take part in the pep meeting.

Merchants will be asked to contribute old boxes for the bonfire, Mr. Haldeman said. Life and Guy C. Stolz are members of a Junior Chamber committee working on preparations.

NO BIDS RECEIVED ON COAL FOR CITY

ministrations. He said he would not bid on the coal unless the city could assure him that he would get his money and when he would get it. The dealers have to pay for the coal and the freight on it, when it arrives here and we can't afford to sell the city and take a chance on not getting our money or wait a great length of time for it," Mr. Miller added.

Bids are being asked by the city on approximately 350 tons of coal. The law makes it mandatory for the city to advertise for bids, since the purchase would run more than $500.

Auditor Checks Record

Frank Weber, city auditor, checked his books today and said he found the city owes the coal dealers $150,700 from coal contracts he had for last November. He said he could find no record of past unpaid coal bills.

From November of 1934, when coal contracts were last awarded, to date the city has used approximately 400 tons of coal which was contracted for at $3.46 a ton, making a total of approximately $2,000 the city has spent for coal this year. According to Mr. Weber's figures all but $100,700 of this amount has been paid.

The finance committee of city council met with Mayor C. A. Bollin last night to discuss the coal situation. It was decided to recommend to council that money be appropriated to pay the bills amounting to $150,700 and to appropriate funds for purchase of coal for the remainder of this year. City hall, sewerage treatment works, fire stations and city hall.

Mayor Anonymous Plans

When questioned as to what the city will do if dealers again fail to bid after the second advertisement is run, Mayor Bollin declared, "The city will have coal this winter. If no bids are received this time we'll buy where we please, and go out of town if necessary." He would not predict what action council will take on the recommendations of the finance committee to appropriate city funds.

The mayor advanced an opinion that the soft coal strike just settled might be holding back some dealers, although the dealer who said he spoke for members of the association said the strike has nothing to do with the city situation.

Time for receiving bids closed yesterday after first advertisements were run in The Star Sept. 6, Sept. 13 and Sept. 20. The board of contract met and adjourned after the shortest meeting on record. A motion was passed to readvertise during the next two weeks in a final effort to obtain bids.

British Building Ships

High British authorities admitted the European situation coupled with the absence of the home fleet, now in Mediterranean waters, had spurred the government to speed up its emergency naval construction program.

Premier Laval of France was deeply concerned lest the third reich, taking advantage of a disturbed Europe, might become more conciliatory with Italy. French diplomats consequently were seeking to strengthen Franco-British bonds.

Should sanctions be involved in the event of war in east Africa, German officials admitted such a development might open up new markets in Germany. This brought hope for relief in the reich's economic tangle.

The Suez Canal Co. indicated its intention of keeping the canal open regardless of what sanctions might be taken. Sanctions which would lead to the closing of the canal would seriously hamper Italian movement of troops and war materials to its east African colonies.

Ethiopian soldiers grew so frenzied in the military pageantry marking the festival of Makkal that the emperor provided the Italian minister with a special guard to prevent any physical assault or insult to the emperor.

Roosevelt Defends AAA Before Farmers

agricultural adjustment is an expression in concrete form of the human rights those farmer patriots sought to win when they stood at the bridge at Concord they proclaimed the Declaration of Independence, and when they perpetuated these ideals by the adoption of the Constitution.

Methods and machinery change, but principles go on, and I have faith that no matter what attempts are made to tear it down, the principle of farm equality expressed in agricultural adjustment will not die.

Recalls 30 Cent Wheat

Mr. Roosevelt recalled he saw "farmers threshing 30 cent wheat and shelling 20-cent corn" when he visited Nebraska three years ago, and, most disheartening of all, thousands of farmers were losing their homes by foreclosure.

"Three years ago I did not promise the millenium for agriculture," he said. "But I did promise that I should attempt to meet the intolerable situation in every way that human effort and ingenuity made possible."

"Coming back to you after three years I experience the extreme pleasure of recognizing that the cooperative efforts in which the farmers themselves and the congress and the administration have engaged, have borne good fruit."

He said it was true the burden of agricultural debt had not been eliminated but it had been "decisively and definitely lightened." Since May, 1933 he said, half a million farmers had borrowed more than $1,800,000,000 through the farm credit administration and the lowest in history, more than 850,000 farmers were saving more than $55,000,000 this year on interest alone.

The President said farmers knew from their own pocketbooks that their income had been increased.

"The record," he said, "is there to prove the case—an increase of $1,800,000,000 in farm cash income in 1933 over 1932, $1,900,000,000 increase in 1934 over 1933, and an estimated $2,400,000,000 increase in 1935 over 1932. That makes a total of $5,500,000,000 over what the time, he said.

This administration in Washington, he asserted, has spent as much as the combined expenditures of the federal government from Washington's time down to Wilson.

Introduced by Mouser

The attorney general was introduced by Grant E. Mouser, former assistant attorney general and former eighth district congressman. Dr. Smith was presented by T. A. O'Leary, president of the Marion County Republican club, who also introduced all Republican candidates for city offices. C. E. Wharton of Kenton, represented the Federated Farm clubs and the Hardin county Democratic league who displayed a banner endorsing Bricker for governor.

Attorney General Bricker introduced Frederick J. Milligan of Union, Ohio, as his assistant in the attorney general's office and former assistant dean of men at Ohio State university for three years following his graduation from law school there in 1928. Larry Green, a clerk in the attorney general's office and John Mitchell, a son of one of the assistants in the attorney general's office.

The Young Republican Glee club, said by Mr. Milligan to be the only organization of its kind among young Republicans in the state, sang several numbers and Mrs. Mary Elsie Furness sang two solos.

Miss Gertrude Jones of Findlay, former Republican nominee for congress from the eighth district, sent a telegram to the meeting stating regret over her inability to attend.

The Eagles band played at the courthouse and led a motor parade to the Eagles temple prior to the meeting. Sixty persons attended a dinner for Mr. Bricker at Hotel Marion at 6:30 following the reception for him at the hotel at 4.

COAL BOARD BEGINS TO DRAFT LITTLE NRA

Arrival of Maloney as Fifth Member Launches Group's Organization.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 25.—Eager to set up a little NRA for the soft coal industry, the newly created national bituminous coal commission began today writing a code for producers.

Arrival of the fifth member of the commission, Walter J. Maloney, Kansas City attorney, paved the way for organization of the commission and election of Charles F. Newforth Jr. of Pittsburgh as chairman.

Newforth is a former coal operator. He was recommended for his post on the commission by Ben C. Gihon, Democrat of Pennsylvania, author of the coal act under which the commission operates.

Settlement of the coal strike gave the board impetus in its work. Hooford said a statement on the source of funds to operate the commission would be made shortly. A sum to carry out activities failed to materialize when the third deficiency bill died in the last congress.

ROOSEVELT'S VISIT STIRS KENTUCKIANS

Emphasizes Trouble Between Winning and Losing Faction in Primary.

(By The Associated Press)

FRANKFORT, Ky., Sept. 25.—The Presidential blessing today rested upon the youthful shoulders of Lieut. (Gov. A. B. (Happy) Chandler, Democratic nominee for governor, but it seemed to emphasize a schism in the ranks of Democracy in old Kentucky.

After declining a White House invitation to join President Roosevelt's special train at Cincinnati yesterday, a bid Chandler quickly accepted, Gov. Ruby Laffoon and Thomas H. Riles, the state administration's candidate defeated by Chandler in the recent bitter primary campaign, likewise were conspicuously absent from the party gathering, but they came on Lawlessburg today for Chandler's maiden speech as the party nominee.

Party leaders declined to speculate upon what effect, if any, the acclaim may have in determining Kentucky's choice in the state general election Nov. 5 between Chandler and the Republican nominee, Judge King Swopes of Lexington.

CHOIR SINGER SEEKS TO EXPLAIN DROWNING

Alleged "American Tragedy" Killer Denies Confession on Witness Stand.

(By The Associated Press)

WORCESTER, Mass., Sept. 25.—Cast in the role of his own chief witness, Newell Paige Sherman, rural choir singer and seismologist, sought today to explain his wife's drowning to a jury in Massachusetts' first "American tragedy" case.

Sherman, who weighed 245 pounds when his 14-year-old wife, Alice, died on the night of July 20, said in direct testimony yesterday he permitted her to sink to her death in Lake Singitay because he feared that might peril if they remained together.

The jury already had heard the state's assertion that Sherman, on trial for his life on a murder charge, overruled a canoe and drowned the 22-year-old mother of his two children because of his desire to marry her sister, Alice, 18-year-old co-worker in a Whitinsville machine shop.

The defendant denied making a purported confession introduced by the prosecution. It quoted him as saying he deliberately turned over the canoe and pushed his wife away when she relied on him for support.

Palace Theater Bringing 'Diamond Jim' Next Week

"Diamond Jim Brady," one of the most colorful figures of the '90s colorful era, will come to life in the person of Edward Arnold on the Palace screen Sunday and Monday. Following "Diamond Jim" on Tuesday and Wednesday will be a comedy, "Hot Tip," with Zasu Pitts and Jimmy Gleason, and the last three days of the week will bring Claudette Colbert in her latest picture, "She Married Her Boss."

Binnie Barnes, lovely English actress, plays the glamorous Lillian Russell in the Edward Arnold picture, "Cesar Romero, Eric Blure, Hugh O'Connell and George Sidney play other important roles in this recreation of one of the Gay Nineties' most fabulous characters.

Biographers of James Buchanan Brady have had a wealth of material with which to weave fascinating stories. He started life as a baggage-man with the New York Central railroad, and when he died in 1917 at the age of 63, he was many times a millionaire. He capitalized on the steel under-trucks which replaced the wooden trucks on railroad cars and was vice president of the Standard Steel Car company. He had 30 different sets of jewelry worth $2,000,000, and most of the jewels were diamonds. He started his famous collection with a $80 diamond ring and when he died he possessed one set which cost $275,000.

Claudette Colbert has two handsome leading men, Melvyn Douglas and Michael Bartlett, in her latest picture. The private secretary knows a man better than does his wife, according to Miss Colbert. Miss Colbert believes that in the course of a business day the private secretary finds a man in more moods and difficulties than any wife is liable to before their golden wedding anniversary.

Miss Colbert plays the role of a painfully efficient private secretary to a young man with bad digestion and a memory of a recent marital experience that turned sour. Douglas is the boss, Bartlett is the playboy-business man who tries to

'TREASURE ISLAND' COMING TO MARION

Story Played by Wallace Beery and Jackie Cooper Booked Here.

The Marion will bring back "Treasure Island," the delightful picture that broke box-office records, on Thursday, Friday and Saturday. Stars galore dot the cast, with Wallace Beery as "Long John Silver" and Jackie Cooper as "Jim Hawkins," heading the cast. It's a picture to see again and relive the thrills that accompanied the first reading of the Stevenson masterpiece as a child. On the same bill will be a western, "Tumbling Tumbleweeds."

"Champagne for Breakfast" which will open the week's program Sunday and Monday will be on a double-feature bill with a return showing of "Hide Out," which was played for Maureen O'Sullivan and Robert Montgomery.

Mary Carlisle and Hardie Albright are in "Champagne for Breakfast," which concerns a young lawyer who, without clientele, gives up his office to pursue romance and adventure. He finds both in Joan Marsh who learns that enrolled interests are trying to secure her property for a race track. The lawyer, played by Albright, unravels the situation and wins the girl.

The Tuesday and Wednesday program will be a two-feature bill, "Together We Live," with Ben Lyon, Sheila Mannors and Esther Ralston, and "Have a Heart," with James Dunn, Jean Parker, Stuart Erwin and Muriel Evans.

Ben Lyon's role of a modern young man who thinks his own ideas are powerful and intelligent enough to change the conventions of the world, is his first in too long a film. The story deals with the straightening out of the morals and conventions of the present young generation which half expects the world to be handed to it on a silver platter. The "Have a Heart" picture is a romantic bit about a young dancer, credited though a tragic accident, and her romance with an employee of an ice cream company. Dunn plays the employee and Miss Parker the dancer.

Stand where you are, Junior! I just went over to look to be sure there were no more keys on his person which he might possibly have overlooked. Now I am going to submit you to the same search."

I came down from the car and gave his clothing and shoes the same inspection I had given to Rodrick's. I did not search Rodrick again for I had watched his journey back to the car and his return with Junior and I knew there had been no opportunity for him to receive or conceal so much as a pin during that interval. When I had finished I stepped back and looked steadily at both boys.

Rodrick Explains
"Now you may explain these keys," I said, "I am ready."

There was an instant's perceptible hesitation. Then Rodrick broke into excited speech.

"You don't have to search this time Jun," he said. "I'll tell everything."

He faced me bravely and I felt my heart warm to the look in his face.

"I asked Jun to keep the keys for me," he said. "He didn't want me to take them along with us. I wanted him to leave them in our room at home. We almost had a fight over it. (Gee! I wish I did what he said!)"

"I'm glad you didn't," I said quietly, expecting the look of amazement which spread over the face of my young man.

Why? Mamma Junior? I am worried at last. What do you mean?"

(Copyright 1935, K. P. B. Inc.)

AT JUNIOR'S quivering question, "Do you mean we've got to search each other all the time now?" the consternating band around my heart loosened and he jerked again for I had watched his journey back to the car and his return with Junior and I knew there had been no opportunity for him to receive or conceal so much as a pin during that interval. When I had finished I stepped back and looked steadily at both boys.

"No!" I said, purposely inventing the monosyllabic word, "I do not mean that at all!" For at ordinary occasions the "I" of no tattling is still in force as strong as ever.

"But!" I went on, pausing to make the dictum more impressive, "I am going to insist now upon your observing something which I have told you before but which I have never emphasized because it did not seem possible that either of you would ever disobey me in a matter that would mean danger or death to yourselves or to other members of the family."

Rodrick's frightened expression was a brilliant breath from both the boys and Rodrick broke into frightened babbling speech.

"I didn't think I didn't mean to! In fact I didn't. Oh Jun! I wish you had snatched on me!"

I saw my boy stiffen at this betrayal that he had known of his cousin's dangerous plan before it was carried out.

I am going to lay this law down now," I said firmly almost sternly. From now on if either of you knows of the other being or planning anything which will mean danger to yourselves, anyone else or to animals, and property you are tried to warn the other and then if he does not stop whatever he is doing or planning, you are to come straight to me and tell me everything you know. Do you both understand me?"

Yes oh yes. The tubes were eager emphatic. I wondered if I were patrolling in thinking that Jun's tones held a note of reproof which I did not hear from Rodrick.

Searches Junior
Then I said, hurrying on, "I'm going to ask again the question that I put to you. Rodrick, how do you feel about this? You told me that you had keys to every car at the farmhouse. Where are they now?"

Junior spoke quickly. "I have them Mamma. Here they are!"

I took his trousers pocket. He drew a knitted handkerchief covering a parcel crowded into the smallest possible space. With an excited throat I fought for words to meet this unexpected revelation. Finally found them in the coin mound.

MAIL TRUCK ROBBERS GET 25-YEAR TERM

Attorney Will Ask That Warren Holdup Convicts Be Sent to Alcatraz.

By The Associated Press
CLEVELAND, O., Sept. 25.—
George Sargent and Anthony Labriette, convicted yesterday of robbing a Warren mail truck at $72,000, may join the ranks of government convicts at Alcatraz prison on a rocky island in San Francisco bay.

United States Attorney Emerich
T. Freed announced after the jury had returned its verdict that he would ask the attorney general to send the men to Alcatraz, home of the government's worst convicts.

Federal Judge Samuel West announced the two Akron men to terms of 25 years in a federal penitentiary. The jury took only 20 minutes to bring in its verdict.

The 25-year term is mandatory under the law, but the selection of a prison is left specifically to the attorney general.

The prosecutor's past records show these men should be put away where there will be no chance of their getting out for a long time."

Freed said, "Sargent has been in the slot machine racket for years.
Labriette was his bodyguard."

Mario J. Welton, associate defense counsel, said the conviction should be appealed.
